Dice of Life

Here's
the manifesto...

I can't explain myself. I just tell you pebbles. ~~of a~~ Like the time in 4th grade one of my nails fell off. I think it was the index on my right hand. It ~~was~~ ^{ripped} off from the string ~~of~~ ^{of} a sleeping bag.
It bled. ~~of~~ For two weeks the finger had no nail. It was naked, and the skin underneath looked like ~~a~~ school pizza.
I showed ~~of~~ ^{kids} and they thought it looked cool. That's how I got friends.
That's a little pebble.

Sincerely,

Mr. Pizza Finger

Even the sun sets behind your back sometimes

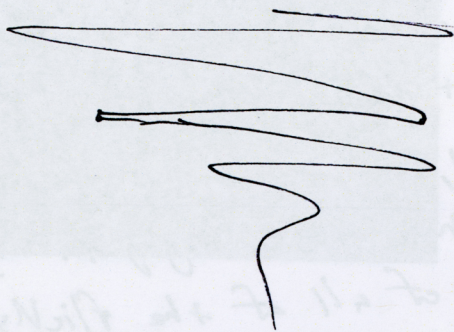

Yoooooo,
So this issue is with my homie Harry Melvin aka Buggy aka ya mother...
We just got some polaroids from over the last couple of years I wanted to throw 'em all together cuz we think they all make sense together.
Nothing really makes complete sense anyway, so you might as well put some shit together & see what comes out. You may laugh, cry, & wallow in a never ending vortex of depression... we hope it's not the latter, but we can't promise anything. Tarassov quit promised, and neither is today, so we're here now trying to just make sense of all of the flicks that really have no relation at all, for your viewing pleasure... issue #2.
